4. STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE REPORT

Student Representative, Ms. Nadia Abouchanab began her report by informing the Committee that all students who are not registered fully remote are back to school full-time. She shared that her peers including herself feel a sense of relief and normalcy to be back and feel safe, and guidelines are being followed. Listed are some items she updated the Committee on:

- Wednesday, April 14th there will be a grade level assembly taking place via Microsoft TEAMS
- Senior Night was held on Saturday, April 10th for New Bedford High School (NBHS) football players, cheerleaders and band members.
- The Student Advisory Committee will be sponsoring a Clean Up day on Saturday, April 24th at Fort Taber located at 1000C Rodney French Blvd. from 11AM – 2PM.
- NBHS will be hosting a Financial Aid workshop on Saturday, May 1st.
- NBHS Drama Club recorded a “Shakespeare Special” for the special needs students.
- Three NBHS students were accepted into Harvard University and Ms. Abouchanab herself has made the decision to commit to Suffolk University.

5. SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT

Superintendent Thomas Anderson began his report with the in-person instruction expansion of the upper level grades. He shared elementary schools will be phased in by April 5th, middle schools by April 9th and NBHS grade 9 by April 5th & 6th and grades 10th – 12th will start on April 7th.

The Superintendent informed the Committee of supports for curriculum and instruction within the schools: tools and resources for high-quality learning and outcomes, expanding technology access including access for grades K-6, providing high-quality literacy materials and instruction, and supporting Facilities with additional building service workers. He also shared strategies that will be prioritized: meeting social-emotional needs of students and families, hiring school-based parent specialist, providing school-based social workers, and developing more focused and engaged students in grades K-6 with increasing access to art, music, science, physical education and health.

Deputy Superintendent, Ms. Karen Treadup went on to review the accountability progress that was made prior to the Covid-19 pandemic. She shared the participation rates of 11th and 12th graders in advanced coursework. She stated in 2018, 29.2% participated, in 2019, 34.1% participated and in 2020 (Covid-19 onset) it increased to 41.6% participating. The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) set a target of 38.6% and NBPS exceeded that by +7.5%. The Superintendent stated that there was an increase in Advanced Placement (AP) testing in spite of the pandemic. He reviewed total enrollment in testing from school years 2016-2020 and highlighted an increase of 96 students from 2019 to 2020. He added there was a 50%+ pass rate in 2020 and went on to review some SAT and PSAT participation. Member, Mr. Christopher Cotter put in a request for the amount of students participating in each of the AP courses being offered at the high school.

Ms. Treadup shared the chronic absenteeism rates and reviewed the attendance data, as well as, New Bedford Public School (NBPS) rates in comparison to state chronic absenteeism rates. She then shared the grade level rates for students meeting and exceeding expectations with results from Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) assessments from the beginning, middle and end of the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 school years. Member, Mr. Bruce Oliveira asked if Ms. Treadup could provide the Committee with chronic absenteeism rates from the gateway cities in comparison to NBPS. Ms. Treadup responded that she would at a later date. Member, Ms. Colleen Dawicki had concerns about what would be done for learning loss. Ms. Treadup stated there is growth and NBPS's is moving in the right direction. She added that a variety of support programs are being added to address the learning loss: robust after-school and summer programs, tutoring and accelerated academies during April school vacation. Ms. Dawicki asked if information can be provided at the end of the school year as to who took advantage of the learning loss programs being offered.

Mr. Brian Turner, Curriculum, Data & Assessment Manager from the Office of Curriculum and Instruction presented an update to the Committee on the performance data and initiatives going on in the middle schools. He shared all three middle schools have new key math and reading initiatives. Overall progress is being made towards improvement through primary focus areas: building capacity of leaders and staff, strengthening core instruction and curriculum and establishing systematic data analysis for student achievement. He went on to share the DESE accountability data for 2018 and 2019 in English Language Arts (ELA) achievements and ELA growth. He added that DESE did not issue accountability determinations for the 2019-2020 school year due to the cancellation of state assessments and school closures related to Covid-19. Mr. Turner reviewed the district increase in the beginning of the year through STAR testing, i-Ready Math and i-Ready Reading placement gains. He reviewed the math and reading initiatives and concluded his update with attendance and engagement initiatives, including: attendance intervention tracking, home visits (155+), correspondence (1,800+) and enhancing electronic communications.

Executive Director of Strategic, Initiatives & Partnerships, Ms. Jennifer Ferland provided an update in regards to NBPS's Family, Institute for Student Success (FISS) program. Ms. Ferland shared that the Carlos Pacheco and Hayden McFadden Elementary Schools recently had graduating classes with 15 family participants in each class. Not all schools have the program and she is working to make this available at schools across the district. She shared that there has been positive feedback and families have requested to attend additional sessions. She added that it is a nine week program for families to learn how to work with teachers, what to expect from parent-teacher conferences, what attendance means, what is testing and how it works, etc. The program is offered in multiple languages. She concluded by sharing some partnership opportunities that are currently going on with the community partners.

Upon completion of the school updates the Superintendent began his fiscal year 2022 budget proposal. He began with the focus of essential areas of growth which included: access through equity, standards-based/grade tasks and assignments, instruction that fosters student thinking, deep student engagement and high expectations, bilingual staff. He went on to review his main NBPS 2022 investment priorities which included NBPS's will support classroom instruction and educators, including high quality curriculum, positive learning environments and bolstered instruction resources, as well as, support children and families by transforming their experience with direct supports for their critical needs that impact learning in the classroom.

He then reminded the Committee of the student population trends and poverty impact including access and equity within the district.

The Superintendent's budget priorities focus on leveraging partnerships to create more opportunities. One being, expansion of middle school academics: Foreign Languages, Algebra I, Civics, Dual Enrollment and International Baccalaureate programs. Some current and potential partnerships NBPS's has are: Greater New Bedford Youth Alliance containing 50 partners, a wide variety of local childcare providers, leadership collaborative projects, partnerships with higher education universities and colleges. He then reviewed the current key technology investments in place: School-wide Internet Access, Munis, Microsoft 365 agreement, ASPEC Student Information System, phone system, educator evaluation, web hosting communication applications, School Dude and Frontline AESOP attendance system. The goal is to continue to support and enhance the technology provided to students, teachers and staff.

Additionally, the priority programs which align with the goals, objectives and outcomes in the NBPS strategic plan, include: increasing student access to supports, expanded access to Pre-K, early literacy programs for Pre-K and early elementary grades, early college programs, high-quality and aligned curriculum, diversify educators and administration, leadership programs for schools, expand staffing for arts, athletics and enrichment including strategic schedules, recruit and retain hard to staff schools and positions, improve facilities to create healthy and safe school environments. The Superintendent shared that to date over 600 classrooms have been visited so far this year and the following results are seen within classrooms:

- Displays of learning
- Excellent student engagement
- Instructional dialogue in classrooms
- Trends/patterns illustrating that instruction is more targeted and aligned to DESE standards
- Technology infused in daily lessons
- Students demonstrating ,more critical and analytical thinking skills
- Students being challenged with more higher level assignments

Some of the curriculum investment priorities that are planned for the 2022 fiscal year are: benchmark assessment tools to accurately measure student growth, grade 3 reading comprehension and writing, special education and English learner space options and tier 1 supports, reading comprehension programs and writing strategies for math, as well as, K-8 literacy leadership, physical education/health and more offerings for the music program. The Superintendent provided a quick review of the key Human Capital investments for fiscal year 2020 and 2021 investments moving forward for 2021 and ended with a quick review of his main buckets moving forward. Superintendent Anderson closed out his budget presentation with Assistant Superintendent of Finance and Operations, Mr. Andrew O'Leary providing insight into the NBPS fiscal year 2022 balanced budget and operating budget including a breakdown of salaries, wages and general school expenses.
